Perfectly placed on a two-acre lot in the heart of the Shenandoah Valley, it offers endless mountain views from every window. All 7100+ square feet exude luxury and grandeur, with no details unthought. Walk through the Alder wood front door and you're greeted by an inviting mix of natural lighting, wrought iron fixtures, and a soaring ceiling encasing a tiered chandelier. The gourmet kitchen is nothing short of spectacular, with chestnut cabinets and a matching coffered ceiling set against expansive windows showcasing the Blue Ridge Mountains. Other kitchen amenities include granite countertops, Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances, two islands, a glass tile backsplash, and a gas fireplace with floor-to-ceiling stone. The main level has authentic maple hardwood flooring with black walnut inlays in the great room that accent the built-in shelves.
