Cross F Ranch | Ucross, Wyoming | $12,500,000

Executive Summary

Cross F Ranch is perfectly Wyoming, combining solid production with outstanding recreational amenities. Totaling 2,838± acres, with 1,358± deeded and 1,480± state leased acres, the ranch lies in an elongated, contiguous block taking in both sides of Piney Creek, just 20 miles southeast of Sheridan.

At the heart of the ranch is Piney Creek and the fertile, alluvial bottom ground that flanks the stream. Piney Creek is one of the premier trout fishing streams in Wyoming and this particular stretch, below Lake DeSmet, is most desirable. It is a tailwater to the lake and benefits from lake water supplementing the flow in the late summer when the stream tends to start tapering off. The additional flow keeps the creek healthy and grows some nice sized trout; truly a fly fisherman and angler's dream. In addition to the quality fishing, the ranch holds multiple species of big game and upland birds.

In addition to the recreational amenities, Cross F Ranch is productive. Excellent territorial water rights are utilized through a newly implemented pipeline irrigation system. There are 300± acres being irrigated under three pivots, five side roll sprinklers, and several K-Line sprinklers. Beyond the lush riparian areas and irrigation of the Piney Creek Valley, are the higher elevations of the ranch with prominent bluffs and brushed draws that comingle large expanses of densely sodded native rangelands. These areas provide key summer grazing for both livestock and wildlife and provide ample room to explore by hiking, horseback riding, and exploring on ATVs.

Cross F Ranch is a fully operational ranch with a historic home, barn, corrals, shop, and hanger. Currently supporting 275 pairs May through October, wildlife and livestock flourish with excellent grazing and water throughout. In addition to Piney Creek, there are four reservoirs and four solar wells evenly distributed.
