

Seeking a quiet retreat away from the hustle and bustle of urban life, yet accessible to dining and entertainment activities? Check out Johnson, 125 acres in Leake County, Mississippi one mile south of Highway 25. With 109 acres of 8-year-old pines and 13 acres of hardwood Stream-side Management Zone along Harper Creek, it offers a mix of forested areas that could be great for various uses, including hunting. Its location, surrounded by thousands of acres of timberland, suggests a secluded and potentially serene environment. The proximity to nearby towns like Carthage, 12 miles, Kosciusko, 18 miles as well as to the Jackson Metro area, 60 miles, could offer convenient access to amenities while still providing a rural escape. Plus, being just 10 miles away from Pearl River Resorts and Dancing Rabbit Golf Club might appeal to those interested in recreational activities beyond hunting and nature.
