HOUSE

A Haven of Beauty and Serenity at Oyster Mountain Ranch

Welcome to Oyster Mountain Ranch, where refinement meets tranquility in the heart of the Northern Black Hills. This remarkable two-story home, built in 2007, is a masterclass in design, offering an unparalleled lifestyle of comfort, convenience, and connection to nature.

Nestled on an expansive 39.86 +/- acre property with breathtaking views, this 3,928 sq. ft. home is more than a residence—it's a retreat. Every detail has been thoughtfully crafted to create an inviting space that balances openness with intimacy.

Gourmet Kitchen Designed for Moments That Matter

At the heart of this home lies the gourmet kitchen, a chef's dream and an entertainer's delight. The centerpiece of the kitchen is the 55 sq.ft island, with seating for eight, invites conversations while meals are prepared with ease. A walk-in pantry provides ample storage, and the large picture window, perfectly framing the rolling hills and capturing the timeless beauty of the Black Hills.

The First Floor: A Space for Living and Entertaining

The thoughtfully designed first floor includes a large great room with a cozy fireplace, expansive picture windows that bathe the space in natural light, and a dining area perfect for gatherings. Additional spaces include a versatile media room, ideal for movie nights, a game room, or a private office, and a mudroom with oak built-ins that ensure impeccable organization for your everyday needs.

Your Private Master Retreat

Escape to the ultimate sanctuary: a 675 sq. ft. master suite that exudes sophistication and comfort. Vaulted ceilings enhance the sense of space, while a private deck offers a peaceful spot to savor your morning coffee or rest after work. Two large walk-in closets ensure no detail is overlooked. The two-sided fireplace warms both the bedroom and the spa-like master bath, where relaxation takes center stage. Picture yourself unwinding in the luxurious two-person soaking tub, perfectly positioned beside the fireplace and a large window overlooking the serene beauty of your ranch.

Space for Everyone and Every Need

Upstairs you will also find three additional bedrooms, each thoughtfully designed with walk-in closets. A cozy family room, two bath rooms, and a laundry room with custom cabinets and access to the back yard and deck. The entire home is outfitted with a whole-house sound system, with speakers throughout the interior and outdoor spaces, ensuring music and entertainment are always within reach.

A Natural Masterpiece

Step outside and immerse yourself in the beauty of the surrounding landscape. Whether you're an equine enthusiast enjoying the outdoor arena or simply gazing at the lush pastures and sweeping views of the Black Hills, this property offers a connection to nature that's hard to match. The home's placement on the property ensures privacy while maximizing the stunning Vistas. Oyster Mountain Ranch is more than a house—it's a lifestyle, a story waiting for its next chapter.

COMMUNITY AMMENITIES

Sturgis-There's the world-famous Sturgis Motorcycle Rally, of course, but that's just one of many events taking place every year. Camaro and Mustang rallies appeal to those whose vehicles come with four wheels instead of two. Summers feature mountain bike races, Music on Main concert series, a Volksmarch hike, an Arts Festival, the Northern Hills Ag Fest, a Community Appreciation Picnic, and more.

The Vanocker Canyon 17-mile scenic drive in the northern Black Hills begins right in Sturgis. It's a lesser-known route that features dramatic scenery; the winding road offers plenty of twists and turns as it carves its way through stands of birch, aspen, and ponderosa pine. Drivers will catch glimpses of Box Elder Creek along the way and can take a breather in the historic little town of Nemo before continuing on to picturesque Sheridan Lake.

Three popular Sturgis-area museums offer different perspectives on the town's history. Fort Meade, established in 1878, has a long and storied military past. It was home to several elite cavalry and infantry units, including the 7th U.S. Cavalry and the Buffalo Soldiers of the 25th U.S. Infantry, and is still a training site for the South Dakota National Guard. The Old Fort Meade Museum houses an extensive collection of artifacts dating back to the late 19th century. The Sturgis Motorcycle Museum & Hall of Fame pays tribute to the town's motorcycling history, with a vast display of motorcycles dating back to 1905, as well as photographs and memorabilia from Motorcycle Rallies throughout the years. Finally, the Sturgis Car Museum is a relatively new addition to the community, but a mighty one! They offer an in-depth look into Saab cars and culture, plus a variety of special collector's show pieces as well - each with a story to tell.

Located six miles northeast of Sturgis, Bear Butte is an iconic geological formation considered sacred by many Native American tribes. It rises 1,253.5' above the prairie and offers views of four states from the summit: Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming. The mountain is a favorite backdrop for photographers, offering breathtaking scenery during all four seasons. Bear Butte State Park provides recreational activities such as boating, camping, fishing, and hiking. More information can be found at <https://sturgisareachamber.com/>

RECREATION

World renowned for being one of the largest tourist destinations in the Nation, the Black Hills and surrounding area are home to some of the best recreational opportunities in every season. Activities in the area include hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, downhill skiing, cross country skiing, horseback riding, mountain biking, hiking, rock climbing, camping, four-wheeling, golf, and rodeos just to name a few. In addition to Mount Rushmore and the Devils Tower National Monument, this area is home to many of our nation's historical treasures such as, the Crazy Horse Memorial, and historic Deadwood, South Dakota.

AIRPORT INFORMATION

Rapid City, South Dakota: The Rapid City Regional Airport is located eight miles southeast of Rapid City, South Dakota. This is a commercial airport offering daily flights from Allegiant Air, Delta, United, and Northwest Airlines. For specific information about the airport, flight schedules, amenities as well as relevant links about Rapid City and the surrounding area, visit <http://www.rcgov.org/Airport/pages>.

REAL ESTATE RELATIONSHIPS DISCLOSURE

South Dakota real estate brokers are required to develop and maintain a written office policy that sets forth agency and brokerage relationships that the broker may establish. The broker must disclose in writing the types of agency and brokerage relationships the broker offers to consumers and to allow a consumer the right to choose or refuse among the various real estate relationships. The following real estate relationships are permissible under South Dakota law.

Single Agent-Seller’s/Landlord’s Agent: Works on behalf of the seller/landlord and owes duties to the seller/landlord, which include good faith, loyalty, and fidelity. The agent will negotiate on behalf of and act as an advocate for the seller/landlord. The agent may not disclose confidential information without written permission of the seller or landlord.

Single Agent-Buyer’s/Tenant’s Agent: Works on behalf of the buyer/tenant and owes duties to the buyer/tenant which include good faith, loyalty, and fidelity. The agent will negotiate on behalf of and act as an advocate for the buyer/tenant. The agent may not disclose confidential information without written permission of the buyer or tenant.

Disclosed Limited Agent: Works on behalf of more than one client to a transaction, requiring the informed written consent of the clients before doing so. A limited agent may not disclose confidential information about one client to another without written permission releasing that information. While working to put the transaction together, agents in a limited agency transaction cannot negotiate nor advocate solely on behalf of either the seller/landlord or buyer/tenant. A limited agent may not be able to continue to provide other fiduciary services previously provided to the client.

Appointed Agent: Works on behalf of the seller/landlord or buyer/tenant and owes the same duties to the client as that of a single agent. A seller/landlord or buyer/tenant with an appointed agency agreement is represented by agents specifically named in the agreement. Any agents of the firm not named in the agreement do not represent the seller/landlord or buyer/tenant. The named appointed agent acts solely on behalf of his or her client and may only share confidential information about the client with the agent’s responsible broker or the broker’s designated broker who is also named in the agreement. Other agents in the firm have no duties to the seller/landlord or buyer/tenant and may act solely on behalf of another party in the transaction. The responsible broker and the broker’s designee act as a disclosed limited agent when appointed agents within the same firm are representing their respective clients in the same transaction.

Transaction Broker: Exercises reasonable skill and care in assisting one or more parties with a real estate transaction without being an advocate for any party. Although the transaction broker will help facilitate the transaction, the licensee will serve as a neutral party, offering no client-level services (such as negotiation) to the customer. The transaction broker may not disclose confidential information about a party to another without written permission releasing that information.

Duties of a buyer, tenant, landlord, or seller: The duties of the real estate licensees in a real estate transaction do not relieve a party to a transaction from the responsibility to protect the party’s own interests. Persons should carefully read all documents to ensure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. If legal or tax advice is desired, consult a competent professional in that field.

All real estate licensees must provide disclosure of all actually known adverse material facts about the subject property or a party’s ability to perform its obligations.

South Dakota law requires a written agreement which sets forth the duties and obligations of the parties as described in the brokerage relationships itemized above.

The office policy of _____ (company) is to offer only those services marked above.
