WELCOME TO THE SUMTER 603

HERE IT IS FOLKS, THE SUMTER 603, A DREAMLAND OF WILDLIFE HUNTING! With unlimited trophy whitetail, longbeards, hog and duck hunting you won't have to look any further for all of your hunting desires. Nestled in southwest Georgia less than ten miles from Americus, this 603± acre Sumter County tract consists of approximately 158 acres with a lodge and an additional 445± acres less than a mile to the east. This property is home to some of the best wildlife in the state!

Not only will the trophy wildlife hunting captivate you but the income potential is also endless. From mature pine stands, to hardwoods, to Loblolly Elite that was planted in January 2022, the current and future timber investment is immediately obvious. Approximately nine acres of irrigated agriculture field can be leased out for farming.

MORE ABOUT THE SUMTER 603

THERE ARE TWO PONDS THAT OFFER FISHING AS WELL AS SOME OF THE BEST DUCK HUNTING THIS AREA CAN OFFER. Wolf Creek runs through the middle of the property providing a year-round water source for those trophy whitetails to travel. Multiple established food plots are in place to keep those whitetail and turkey happy, they will have no reason to leave your place. An established road system runs throughout the entire property with a multitude of sub-trails for easy access to all the hardwood hunting areas.

The Sumter 603 also expresses amazing versatility with its captivating landscape: rolling terrain, hardwood bottoms, mature pine, and pastureland. Established food plots are in place with tower stands and feeders. This is pretty much a turnkey hunting and income-potential paradise.
